

Therese Solomon

Imagine an agent who communicates openly, is firmly focused on servicing your needs and who uses her proven track record and superior negotiation skills to achieve an outstanding result on your behalf. This agent DOES exist!

With her passion and enthusiasm for customer service, Therese is dedicated to more than simply meeting your expectations, she wants to exceed them.

As an Inner West resident, Therese prides herself on her local knowledge and her ability to highlight the unique opportunities this area offers. She understands the reasons people want to buy here.

Being a Registered Valuer, Therese knows the importance of thorough market research. She can provide you with vital information on local and nationwide market trends, allowing you to make more informed decisions. She can also assist in maximising your end result by advising you on how to present your property in its best light and how it can be marketed in the most professional manner.

Since commencing in Real Estate in 1982, Therese has accumulated a wealth of experience in the industry. She has built a solid reputation as an exceptional agent, reinforced by a constant flow of referrals and repeat business. Her qualifications speak for themselves – as a Licensed Real Estate agent, she holds a Real Estate Certificate, plus a Graduate Diploma in Property Development and an Associate Diploma in Business (Valuation).

She understands the pressures and responsibilities of the business world, having previously established and run a highly successful Real Estate office, followed by a thriving upmarket tourist accommodation business in Fiji. She also knows the challenges involved in working overseas, then returning to Australia to live and work.
